

Cincinnati, O., Feb. 27-'88.

The U. S. Mint,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Messrs:

A few days since, I wrote to the U. S. Treasury Dept., at Washington D. C. for information in regard to copper cents, and they referred me to the U. S. Mint at Philadelphia.

The case is this: I am a clerk in the Post-Office at Cincinnati, O., and as we celebrate the 100th anniversary of the settlement of Ohio, by holding a Centennial Exposition, it is my intention, if possible, to make an exhibit of the stamps, coins, and fractional currency of the U. S. Can you furnish me with a set of U. S. Copper cents? If so, at what price? Please let me know as soon as possible.

Respectfully

C. W. Earhart,
P. O. Clerk,
Cincinnati,
Ohio.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 150

Cincinnati, O.,
February 27, 1888

The U.S. Mint,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Messrs:

A few days since, I wrote to the U.S. Treasury Dept., at Washington D.C. for information in regard to copper cents, and they referred me to the U.S. Mint at Philadelphia.

The case is this: I am a clerk in the Post-Office at Cincinnati, O., and as we celebrate the 100th anniversary of the settlement of Ohio, by holding a Centennial Exposition, it is my intuition, if possible, to make an exhibit of the stamps, coins, and fractional currency of the U.S.

Can you furnish me with a set of U.S. copper cents? If so, at what price?

Please let me know as soon as possible.

Respectfully,
C.W. Earhart
P.O. Clerk
Cincinnati,
Ohio.